

W. N. S. RES. 82537

---

IN THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION COMMITTEE

Mr. CHAIRMAN introduced the following resolution which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Gastronomics and Dietetics.

---

JOINT RESOLUTION

To authorize the preparation of an appropriate banquet in commemoration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the granting of the charter to the American Numismatic Association.

1       Resolved by the General Convention Committee and the Wash-
2       ington Numismatic Society in conference assembled,
3       That in commemoration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the 4       granting of the charter to the American Numismatic Association,
5       there shall be prepared in a kitchen of the Hotel Washington to be 6       designated by the Maitre d'Hotel, not less than seven courses of 7       standard size, delectability and composition each of special appro-
8       priate viand containing ingredients to be determined by the proper
9       official authorities of the epicurean world with the approval of the 10      Chef of the Hotel Washington, but the General Convention Com-
11      mittee shall not be subject to the slightest expense of making the 12      guests partake of these courses, they to be of such quality that no
13      urging is required.

14      SEC. 2. The courses herein authorized shall be legally tender to 15      the amount of their food value and shall be set before each guest

1 in regular order upon certification by him of his willingness, but
 2 not more than one course shall be issued to him at any one time
 3 and no course shall be issued after the expiration of his capacity.
 4 Such courses shall be disposed of in the regular manner and the 5 net enjoyment shall be used to bring back fond memories incidental
 6 and appropriate to the commemoration of such event.

7 SEC. 3. All laws now in force relating to the delicacies of the 8 world of Epicurea and the preparation and serving of the same;
 9 providing for the purchase of the finest ingredients and the distri-
 10 bution of the courses; for the prevention of any guest remaining in 11 the state of hunger; or for any other purposes, whether such laws
 12 be dietary or otherwise, shall, so far as applicable, apply to the 13 courses herein authorized.

14 SEC. 4. Each course herein authorized shall commemorate a 15 special and separate anniversary in order that the guest may be 16 enabled to obtain rare specimens of our regard and admiration for 17 the members and guests of the American Numismatic Association.

18 FRUIT COCKTAIL—Commemorating the one-hundredth an-
 19 niversary of the invention of the cocktail fork and the one-hundredth
 20 anniversary of the discovery that it cannot be used safely by man
 21 or beast.

22 CELERY—Commemorating the eighty-first anniversary of the 23 introduction of linen thread into the celery industry.

24 OLIVES—Commemorating the seventy-seventh anniversary of 25 the discovery that green plums do not have ellipsoid seeds.

26 CONSOMME CELESTINE—Commemorating the ninety-sec-
 27 ond anniversary of the birth of the Rheumatican general whose 28 name has been so mishandled by elocutionists.

29 ROAST PRIME SIRLOIN OF BEEF, SAUCE MADERE—
 30 Commemorating the one-hundredth anniversary of the change of 31 the name Stew Beef to Roast Prime Sirloin.

1        POTATOES FONDANTES—Commemorating the eighteen
2 hundredth anniversary of the death of CHIEF DIGGUM STONE
3 NO GOODUM FOR ARROW.

4        FRESH PEAS EN SUCRE—Commemorating the third anni-
5 versary of the admission of the SUCRE into the Commemorative 6 Coin Industry.

7        ROMAN SALAD, RUSSIAN DRESSING—Commemorating
8 the twenty-eighth anniversary of the discovery that lettuce has 9 many aliases.

10       PECAN NUT ICE CREAM and MARGUERITE CAKE—
11 Commemorating the fifty-fifth anniversary of the discovery that 12 the lumpy bits in ice cream were intentional.

13       COFFEE—Commemorating the one hundred sixty-first anni-
14 versary of the introduction of two Brazilian products into America,
15 the coffee bean and the Brazilian nut, both of which have entered
16 so whimsically into our phrenological vocabulary.

17       CIGARS—Commemorating the three hundred fifty-second an-
18 niversary of the discovery of tobacco and the three hundred fifty-
19 first and one-half anniversary of the discovery that cabbage per-
20 forms exactly the same service.

21       CIGARETTES—Commemorating the most enjoyable course
22 of the evening, the introduction of the honored guests of the Wash-
23 ington Numismatic Society:

24       MRS. NELLIE TAYLOR ROSS, Director of the Mint, Honorary
25 Member of the Society;

26       MR. ALVIN W. HALL, Director of the Bureau of Engraving and 27 Printing, Honorary Member of the Society;

28       MR. THEODORE T. BELOTE, Curator of History, Smithsonian
29 Institution, Honorary Member of the Society.

C. Shirley Leachman
Louis S. Werner
Philip R. Ripper

Edw. Bullowa.

Jos. Barnett

Thos. Stutgers

Henri Rijstra

J. J. J. J. J.

Derek J. Steen

Martin A. Kortjohn

25TH CONVENTION
5TH ENTERTAINMENT

W.N.S. RES. 82537

JOINT RESOLUTION

To authorize the preparation of an appropriate banquet in commemoration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the granting of the charter to the American Numismatic Association.

By Mr. CHAIRMAN

Read twice and referred to the Committee on Gastronomics and Dietetics.